

COMMUNICATION STRATEGIES FOR LEADERS

Introduction

The ability to communicate and present effectively is imperative for leadership effectiveness and success. Conveying information to a project team or delivering a difficult message is one of the most powerful skills for achieving the desired objectives. Apart from the basic principles of Communication that drive practice, organizations are striving to expand the reach of their digital services. There is a need to understand how newer platforms like social media can be utilized to communicate with the stakeholders. Leaders need to communicate their views effectively and adapt to different audiences in varying situations and circumstances. MDP on Communication Strategies for Leaders is an attempt to take a comprehensive look at the newer innovations in communication, and aims to equip the managers with the communication skills that are necessary to meet the new challenges in organizations.
